LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

Next Sunday will be St. Patrick's Day.

J. C. Lynch of Desert Springs is in town this week.

Deputy Sheriff Jake Johnson made a visit here the first of the week.

H. Rice of Spring Valley was in town for several days this week.

F. W. Dickle went to Ballionville Friday last and will reside there permanently.

The coming term of the District Court will open here about the last Monday in April.

H. Jacobson, a liquor drummer of San Francisco, arrived on Tuesday evenings Milford stage.

D. McDonald and M. Cohen arrived Saturday evening from a prospecting trip in Panama mining district.

The DeLamar stage now makes three trips a week and for the past two weeks has had a rushing business.

R. E. Clark paid us a flying visit during the week and went on to DeLamar on business of much importance.

The Early Hour Whist Club will hold its next meeting at Mrs. D. McDonald's residence, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

Mr. L. Wertheimer departed on Tuesday's Milford stage for San Francisco on a business trip of much importance.

After several days of cloudy weather a slight storm struck us Tuesday night. We may expect windy and disagreeable weather the balance of this month.

Men looking for work are continually drifting into DeLamar. A number of men from Eureka, Nev. passed through here last Friday, bound for DeLamar.

Dr. J. J. Chambers, of Challis, Idaho, after looking over the business situation in DeLamar, came up on Saturday's stage and departed Monday morning for his home in Idaho.

A total eclipse of the moon occurred last Sunday night at 8 o'clock and was visible in all parts of the United States. Another total eclipse of the moon will occur on September 3rd.

At first glance it would seem that the bill relative to changing the liquor license in this State, recently acted upon by the Legislature, should have been referred to the Committee on Irrigation.—Ex.

An inmate for our county jail arrived from DeLamar on Tuesday's stage. His name is Michael Sullivan and he will be held to await the action of a grand jury on a charge of burglarizing the saloon of T. E. Edwards at DeLamar, recently.

James Nesbitt, who left here some time ago for a visit to his old home in Ireland, is expected to arrive here the first of next week. He wasted no time evidently, and returns with a partner to share his joys and his sorrows in future life.

Of Alexander Hamilton, Daniel Webster said: "He touched the dead corpse of public credit and it sprang upon its feet." Some future Webster is liable to say of Grover Cleveland: "He touched the public credit when it was strong and well, and so badly hypnotized it that it gave off a graveyard odor."

DIED.—At Pioche, Nevada March 8, 1895, John Osborne, aged 63 years. Deceased was an old timer here and had suffered considerably for the past two years and was confined to bed but a few days before death ended his suffering. He was the father of Mrs. W. J. Kennedy, of Milford, Utah and Mrs. D. M. Davey of Helena, Nevada. He was well liked by all who knew him. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Four large sized seats, for the older pupils, one teachers desk for the grammar department, two recitation benches, a large clock and a good sized globe, have been ordered by the school trustees here. General interest in the conduct of the schools hereabouts is increasing, and the funds being on hand to permit it, several improvements are contemplated, among which are a thorough renovation of the school building, by placing in a new floor, weatherboarding the sides with rustic and painting etc. This latter work will not be undertaken until the close of the present term however.

DE LAMAR DOTS.

P. H. Devlin and wife returned Saturday from Eagle Valley.

Since the faro games have been knocked out, our town is unusually quiet.

An addition of a room 20x22 feet is being put on to the refinery room at the DeLamar Co's mill.

Geo. Warren is erecting a residence in the lower end of town, formerly the property of Wm. Perry.

Owing to the increase in business, J. W.
Palmer is compelled to build an addition to his lodging house.

We are pleased to note that N. P. Dooley has entirely recovered from his recent illness and is able to be around again.

Deputy Sheriff Johnson went to Pioche Tuesday, having in his charge a law-breaker to be placed in the cooler to await the action of the grand jury.

Wm. Perry has the contract to carry the DeLamar bullion from Panaca to Milford, and Geo. Warren is to carry the precious metal from here to Panaca.

The electric light fixtures are all put up in and around the mill, office and other buildings of the DeLamar Co., and everything is in readiness to start the electric lights as soon as the dynamo arrives and is put in place.

The building occupied for school purposes is far too small for the accommodation of the pupils attending. With the opening of the next term, four times the present number of children are expected to be enrolled and suitable quarters are to be provided. This is a matter of public interest and we should all take pride in seeing to it that a school house such as the town promises to demand, goes up in the first instance.

Rounders and toughs are coming in on us to such a degree that the jail question must be disposed of at once. It is unreasonable to ask any officer to personally stand guard over the drunks and others whom it is necessary at each pay day to run in. The pay day just passed is a good example of this. Captain J. R. DeLamar offers to contribute one half of any amount which the citizens may expend in constructing a jail.
This is generous on his part and we suggest that a petition be circulated at once among our citizens to see what they can stand, secure as much from the county funds as possible, and put up a good room furnished with two good steel cages. These will answer every purpose and will not be overly expensive. Strike while the iron is hot and let thirty days hence see the building completed.

Capt. J. R. DeLamar left by private conveyance Tuesday morning, for New York having been summoned there on very important business. It was his intention when he arrived here a week ago to remain until the mill should start, estimated at three weeks or so, but some of the machinery being still on the road, the weather bad and other claims pressing on his time, he returned and will not be back here until along toward the fall of the year. The Captain was evidently well pleased with the outlook, since more improvements are to go in at once. A good sized electric light plant and additions to the mill through which to experiment on ores for the extraction of both gold and silver, will be among the first.

The boiler, crushing and drying capacity of the mill is on a scale of 100 tons a day, while the chlorination and leaching tanks provided will work but 50 tons a day. This latter is owing to an anticipated scarcity of water. Pending a solution of this problem a portion of the surplus crushing capacity, etc., will be utilized for experimental purposes on other ores so that in the end a model plant, capable of handling any class of ore found in the district, will result.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder Most Perfect Made.

The stream of water down Meadow Valley Wash is quite large at this time. The Water Storage Company expects to have a full supply this year.

The completion of the Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix railroad into the last named town means a great deal for all that part of Arizona. It will establish competition with the Southern Pacific railroad, which until now had a monopoly of Phoenix business.
Access will be given to the eastern market for Salt River valley fruits, which, of course will make horticulture in that locality much more profitable than it has been.

District Attorney T. J. Osborne made a flying trip to Panaca Tuesday last. While there he visited each of the schools and expressed himself as well pleased with the management of each of the three departments. Panaca is now the largest school district in the county.

An exchange says the weather, by reason of its peculiar freaks, undoubtedly deserves the praises attributed to it by the Yankee poet when he said thus:

"At first it rained and then it snowed;
And then it friz and then it thawed;
And then it blew; it then did rain;
And then it snowed and friz again."

Assemblyman Denton's first bill to redeem our county scrip, was indefinitely postponed in the Senate from the fact evidently, that on consideration it was found impossible to accomplish what its caption promised.
Another bill was substituted by Mr. Denton similar in its provisions to the first, and since the Legislature will adjourn on Monday next, the fate of this second venture is a problem. Those who have spoken of the matter at all heretofore think that with our county in its present condition, matters should be left as they are, since an effort to pay off one class of our creditors will doubtless bring down upon us others, with demands far beyond our ability to satisfy; the bond creditors for instance.

Another Voluntary Assessment for the Pioche Consolidated.

The Salt Lake Herald of recent date has the following item concerning the Pioche Consolidated Co's property here:

For the purpose of raising sufficient funds with which to pay off the remaining indebtedness of the company and defend a couple of suits which are to be heard in the Nevada courts within the next few weeks, the board of directors of the Pioche Consolidated Mining & Reduction company has called upon the local holders of stock, representing the minority of the company, for another voluntary assessment of four mills on the dollar.
The proposition is now being considered by the stockholders and it is highly probable that the entire amount will not be paid.

President Godbe has just issued a statement as to the reasons why the assessment should be paid by the stockholders and the circular closes as follows:

"Permit me to say, in conclusion, that with these vexatious suits disposed of and a very little capital at our disposal, which it need hardly be said is indispensable, it is confidently expected that enough can be made by leasing the Yuba and Half Moon mines to not only cover current expenses, which have been reduced to the lowest possible point, but to accumulate a moderate surplus even under the present abnormal conditions."

"It is gratifying to state, in this connection, that aside from incidentals our monthly expenditures are limited to $62.50 to our agent at Pioche, and $30 for our watchman at the smelting works."

"The company's future, however, as must be apparent to all, depends chiefly on silver.
With its restoration as money of ultimate redemption, or any material advance in price, railroad connection from Pioche to this city on the one hand, and to the Pacific Coast on the other, would beyond reasonable doubt, quickly follow. Then, if not before, compensation for repeated disappointment occasioned, it is but fair to say, by causes beyond human foresight or control, will surely come, and with it an era of permanent prosperity."

The Ancient Order of United Workmen, of Nevada, is truly a beneficiary institution.
During the past month the Order has paid to beneficiaries the sum of $14,000 as follows: Beneficiary of J. R. Williamson, of Austin, $2,000; Fred Fietze of Virginia City, $2,000; K. F. McKenzie of Gold Hill, $2,000; Richard Chagwidden of Gold Hill, $2,000; W. H. M. Kobb of Dayton, $2,000; T. J.
Sullivan of Virginia City, $2,000; Joseph N.
Wallace of Reno, $2,000. The Order is now in a flourishing condition, and it is believed the membership will be increased materially this year. It is one of the cheapest ways a man can insure his life for relatives and friends, and the payments on the death of a Brother are always prompt and full.

The San Francisco Call is making a fight against the income tax, that it proposes to.
It will refuse to obey the provisions of the tax; not in any spirit of opposition to law, but in order to determine whether or not it is the law.

In the game of football at the State University recently, between the down town students and those residing at the dormitory the formers were successful. It is understood that another game will be played in the near future.

Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt has been granted a divorce from her husband on the ground of adultery. She is awarded the custody of the children and an income of $300,000 a year. The woman in the case is Nellie Neustreter, queen of the Parisian demimonde.

The buildings that are now in sight cannot help but make times in Reno good this year.
The University appropriation of $35,000, $15,000 more at the Asylum and $10,000 for the annex to the High School building, say nothing about the new engine house and the other buildings in contemplation, will surely make business in this section good.—Reno Gazette.

Crisp, Culberson and Hitt have been appointed by the House as members of the Monetary Commission. Jones of Nevada, Teller and Daniels were appointed by the Senate.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, March 7, 1895.

The record is made and the fifty-third Congress, has passed into history, which impartially judge its acts, good and bad.
It will be several days before the full effects of the legislation during its last two days of life, can be put in shape as to be aggregated and fully digested, although it is already known that much of it was unwise and more for the good of individuals than for the good of the country. It has become a custom to force Presidents to accept vicious legislation at the close of every Congress as amendments to appropriation bills, because the sponsors for this class of legislation know that the amounts are seldom large enough in a single bill for the President to veto an appropriation bill and entail the expense of an extra session of Congress upon the country. The custom is a bad one and should be broken up, but that is difficult to do. The easiest way to do it would be to follow the recommendations of several Presidents and give the President authority to veto separate clauses of a bill, but that authority can only be given by Congress.

Senator Manderson accomplished one real reform during the last week of his service in the Senate. The time wasted at every session of Congress by the delivery of eulogies on deceased members averages from one to ten days in both House and Senate.
This time will no longer be wasted in the Senate, nor will the memory of deceased Senators be neglected, or their virtues or supposed virtues fail to be recorded. In accordance with a resolution offered by Senator Manderson and adopted by the Senate there will be no more spoken eulogies of Senators. When a Senator dies his life and services will be duly recorded, all his colleagues having a chance to contribute, in a printed volume, and the force of speaking the eulogies to empty chairs and wasting the time of the Senate will be seen no more.

The following words of Sir Charles Hunt, of England, who is at present in Washington and who is known at home as an expert financier, are timely and interesting: "I have studied the money question in India, in Europe and in America, and though I haven't the slightest interest in silver as a producer or owner, I believe that its demonetization has been the cause of the great depression that exists in trade in every civilized country to-day. The masses are just beginning to see this, but they will learn very rapidly henceforth, and in the next general elections in England and in the United States we shall have a popular verdict in favor of bimetalism. My own belief is that we shall never have any permanent prosperity until the great nations of the world come together and fix an agreement that will rehabilitate silver as a money metal. I wish that the United States were able to maintain silver alone, but she cannot do it without the help of other governments."

The silver men who stood so close together during the greater part of the live of Congress just closed, seem within the last few days to have forgotten the trite maxim "united we stand divided we fall," and to have split up into factions. An attempt was made by one of these factions to secure the signatures of a sufficient number of Democratic Senators and Representatives to commit the Democratic party to free coinage at a ratio of 16 to 1. It was a failure and the address to the Democratic party was published with no signatures, because not enough were obtained to make a respectable showing. Bryan of Nebraska, and Bland of Mo., were the principals in the movement. Another faction of silver men composed largely if not entirely, of members of the Bi-Metallic League are now working on a scheme for the formation of a national party on a single platform of the free coinage of silver and for the beginning of the Presidential campaign at once by the nomination of a national ticket.

A portion of the force of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing are working night and day to get the new bonds ready for delivery.

John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil King is the richest man in the country.
His fortune has now reached the gigantic figure of $145,000,000.
